Mother's Days ©2022

By Wanda J. Burnside
Founder and Publisher

A Mom, Mama, Mother or Grandma
All have stories to tell
Oh, if you have time to listen
They'll talked about
How life can become a living hell.

Each wrinkle and frown on a Mother's face
Came from someone or from something
That occurred to put them there!
And the Lord knows,
Her children and life
Gave her every strand of her grey hair!

A Mother knows how to say,
"No! NO! Do you hear me?
You better straighten up today!
No phone, No computer and No TV!"

A Mother gets tired of so many things
She won't put up with much more!
Watch out!
She sees dirty dishes, the bathtub's ring
And all of your clothes on the floor!

A Mother knows how to lay down the rules
For she won't put up with you,
Acting like you've lost your mind!
She'll say, "Honey, you better change...NOW!"
Don't play with her!
Get it together!

A Mother will fuss and argue
Until she's down and blue,
She might want to give-up
Because she's tired of you.

She will sit and wonder why
You're not doing what she said
Mother is so puzzle...
She just wants to go back to bed!

But a Mother hangs in there
And thinks of new plans
Because she's not about to give-in
Nor give her child the upper hand!

A Mother may appear whipped and beat
Like she can't take anymore
But she gets extra strength from God
She will be renewed and ready to soar!

Who truly knows what Mothers thinks,
And how they really feel?
Oh, NOBODY understands her
Or realize how she wheels and deals!

Mother looks at life in so many different ways
Oh, she knows that it is hard
So, that's why Mother constantly prays!

A Mother has sweet and cherished memories
From days and years from the past,
And she still even remembers the hurts...
The disappointments... that lingers and last.

But, Mother holds on and moves forward
Trusting God to make a way,
For she lives by faith in Him
In spite of what others do or say.

Mother lives with life's challenges
She tries to face each and everyone,
Mother has been there for her children,
Her granddaughter(s) and grandson(s).

She goes through one test and then another,

It isn't easy to be a caring and loving mother.

A Mother goes through stress and much pressure,

Ask God to help and bless her!

A Mother's plans often may change suddenly!

Her money is NEVER ENOUGH,

To buy the needed things, pay bills

And all of the other stuff!

A Mother's life is demanding
There's much she has to do,
She will work harder than others
Trying to make things work,
She will hang in there
Oh, there is nobody like Mothers!

A Mother's work goes on and on,
Because she cares about her children.
Sometimes with tears she will fight,
Trying to make things alright.

Some Mothers are abused and battered She's hurt and terrified but goes on
Acting like it's okay and it doesn't matter.
She feels ashamed by what has been done.

What a heavy horrible price
Some Mothers pay
When her life doesn't workout
And she lives in fear night and day...

A Mother's eyes
Looks inside and out
Beyond what others see,
She knows much more than Others would ever believe.

She weighs things in her mind
Over and over in her head,
She considers this and that
About what must be done and said.

A Mother wants to be remembered
And to be included in,
She waits and hopes
That her children
Will find time for her again.

A Mother will always
Know much more than her child
Or her children will ever know,
That's because she has grown
More wiser with good and bad experiences
Just stop, listen and let her tell you so!

A Mother can predict what might happen to her child,

If they don't listen to her advice,
'Cause she knows...

She has already walked those steps before in the journey of life.

But, a Mother will pray that the Lord will bring her child through,
She has a testimony about what God can surely do.

A Mother doesn't want her children

To get hurt nor to fail,

She cries out to the Lord,

"Jesus! Save my children from a burning hell!"

A Mother loves her children with all of her heart,

She cares about them

And her love will never depart.

A Mother may be so worn and tired

But there is never a doubt----

She will lift her child up

And keep helping them to work things out.

A Mother's silence
And her staring looks
Only means...
She has a hunch and a clue
That you are acting like a fool!
She wonders if it's true
What she dreamed about you!
See, a Mother just can't say another word
Because she is just too troubled about
What she has learned and heard.

A Mother is full of wisdom and pride
She knows when you told the truth or lied!
Some of her wise decisions
Came with clear insight and vision
Yet, others just happened out of the blue
Because she was only thinking about you!

See, Mother can look calm as can be,
You'll NEVER figure her out!
Don't you see?

A MOTHER IS CONFIDENT, STRONG AND DETERMINE!

You can depend on a loving Mother
For she understands difficult times
And troubling situations
Although you said you didn't need her help
Mother will be there without any hesitation.

For a loving Mother gives and cares
About her children and their children
All of her life
A Mother willingly does what is needed
For it is NEVER a sacrifice.

A Mother has dreams and goals, too
She wants her children to succeed
And be responsible for what they must learn to do
She prays God will supply their every need.

A Mother looks forward to the future with plans
Hoping her children will make it in life
She wonders and prays that they can Live wisely, productive and larger-than-life!

But, if they should stumble and fall along the way

A Mother hopes there will be a breakthrough
So they all can see better times and better days
That will bring her children and family through.

A Mother often weeps and cries
Constantly tears flows down her face
For they're attached to many circumstances
That arises to challenge her in this life's race.

Frustrations and hard times can be more than
A Mother can sincerely handle and bear
For when she has given all she has to give Others proclaim, *"She acts like she doesn't care!"

A Mother even cries when she's happy
Yes, even when she should be glad
For she is thankful that things worked out
... She considers the report could have been so bad.

To Young Mothers who are only in their teens,
You must not kill your baby within
You didn't get pregnant alone
So where is your boyfriend?

We need to stay off of a young Mother's back!
Be there to guide these Mothers through,
God can turn something wrong right
She didn't abort her baby
She decided to give it life!

Stay off her back!
This young Mother cared!
I mean it!
Don't you dare!

Now daughters and sons
A day is surely coming
Or it has already come
When mother's work on earth
Is all over and done.

If Mother is still living,
Remember her now!
Be thankful for everything
She did for you somehow!

Love her, respect her
And tenderly care for her, too.
Forgive her if she hurt you
If you can't do it
Ask God to help you to forgive
While Mother yet lives

Yes, one day...
Mother will be gone at last.
So start over now
And forget the bitter past.

Now Mothers, while you still have Breath and life in you,
Come on and do
Like Mothers did the old time way
Hold on! Pray! Pray! Pray!

Keep reading your Bible
And studying God's Word,
For He will give you power
To work with your boys and girls!

He will bring you through,
Everything you must do!

Mothers unite together
Ask God to bless your children
Find time to pray and gather
He will help you, your daughters and sons.

Mothers reach out and touch each other in prayer,
The Lord will surely be right there!

Mothers of all ages must pray
And ask the Lord to have
His way!
You need each other,
As never before!
Mothers! Mothers!

Dear Readers,

I know that this isn't your traditional salute and tribute to Mothers for HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY. See, I heard God say, "Wanda, speak the truth about the days and situations that a Mother goes through." So, that is why

I wrote the poem and prayer for all of the God-fearing and godly women who are earnestly trying to do their very best as being a Mother.

Remember, this newsletter is a Lamp. Its purpose is to shine God's light on subjects and situations. We write what is real and true. My goal is to always have the readers informed, involved and learn more about what the Lord is saying. That's my intentions for writing this MOTHER'S DAYS newsletter.

I and THE LAMP NEWSLETTER STAFF, pray for all Mothers to be blessed and protected from harm and danger. We send our love. Have a BLESSED and GLORIOUS MOTHER'S DAY!
