Where are We Headed?

Mrs. Wanda J. Burnside
Founder and Publisher

Pastor and Evangelist Brian Edwards
New Testament Church of God in Christ, Detroit

Dear Readers,

I must confess something to you. I was going to open this 2021 January issue of our newsletter with a whole lot of ramping and raging from me. Yeah! I was going to tell it like it is about all of the craziness going on! I was especially set to speak out on our election last year. Oh, yeah! You know, I was fueled-up to express my feelings...then the outrageous OUTBURST of protest came in Washington D.C. at the White House on January 6, 2021. I was ready to write what I felt, thought, believed, and on and on. Then of course, the Presidential Inauguration, ceremonies and events...I had my side of the story...ready to tell...You..what I thought.

Well, that was until one evening after dinner. Simmie my husband ate and left the kitchen. I looked at our sink, the dish pan was full with a stack of dirty dishes, the sink and stove had pots and pans...waiting for me to wash them. I did not feel like doing any of them. I was already feeling pretty down. So, I decided to turn on the radio and listen to "The Saint's Perspective," with Pastor Brian Edwards, heard Mon.-Thurs. at 7:00 P.M. - 7:30 P.M. on Faith Talk Radio. I truly love his ministry, preaching, teaching and singing, too.

Pastor Brian can preach! He knows how to have church! But, that evening he was ministering and speaking from the peace in his heart. He was not shouting tonight. He slowly spoke, sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit. He was calm and his voice was soothing.

He said, "Saints don't let us get caught up into the things of the world. Don't follow the way of the world. God is not like the world. We are not to go after the things of the world."

Well, I could feel the Spirit of the Lord moving...The Holy Spirit...came into my kitchen..."Saints, the Lord wants us to live and speak differently than the world. Listen to this..."

'Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things, Philippians 4:8 King James Version.'

I began to weep. I raised my hands to the Lord.

"Saints...Listen to this song," said Pastor Edwards. He sung one of those old, old hymns that I remembered from years ago. The song stuck in my spirit and my soul. I was convicted and arrested. Next, Pastor Edwards sung another old-time song about following the Lord and not the world. You know, like the song..."I decided to follow Jesus. I have decided to follow Jesus. You can have this old wide world, but give me Jesus. No turning back."

And, that evening with my kitchen a mess, I was in the presence of the Lord. I remembered..."Whatsoever things are of good report...think on these things." With tears running down my face, I thought about my article for this issue. I CANNOT write about everything that I was going to REPORT because of the bitter and disturbing MEDIA'S REPORTS. I immediately surrendered to the truth of God's Word. I will not allow this world and it's systems to dictate to me my assignments.

After cleaning the dishes, pots, and pans...I went to my computer and deleted the photo of an angry person for this article. I repented. And thanks to Pastor Brian Edwards, my radio pastor, I got on the right track! I will do like I promised the Lord in 2008 when I founded this newsletter...I will give the truth and a good report. Thanks, Pastor Brian Edwards. God bless you!

Welcome! New Staff Writer!

PASTOR
SAMMY L. JACKSON
DAYTONA, FLORIDA

In American, one thing we need is Corporate Prayers during the term of our new President Joe Biden and Madame Vice President Kamala Harris term. I am asking others to join us with the Commander and Chief who's seeking Believers to war or fight against opposition in the vineyard.

Let God come in the inside of us. Let His Spirit move our nation in the right direction. Prayer will enable us to think the way God has chosen for us. We must become the weeper or prayer warrior who walks boldly into the counsel of God's Almighty presence. We must speak the answer and not the problem.

Prayer is the matter of the heart. It brings out what you're praying about to pass. It allows you to be affected by the Holy Spirit. Then you can help or change those around you.

God's Word is full of knowledge and revelation. It is full of many blessings. God is our only true and major point of connection.

On January 6, 2021, we saw a major upset in Washington at the White House. As Believers, we should know right from wrong. We should stand faithfully behind our new president and vice president with prayers to guild them. We must pray for God to keep President Biden and Madame Vice President Harris safe. Give them into the hands of God.

It is very important that God takes control of this Nation. Pray and God will turn it around. He will convict those who have done wrong. Hurting people will be redeemed by the Holy Spirit. Church, we must care about what God cares about and we will see change in America.

Heartfelt Remarks from Bishop T. D. Jakes

Every time I was in her presence, I was struck by her bright mind, warm heart, and effervescent elegance. Family, we have lost a matriarch that paved the way for many celebrities with incomparable artistic prowess. The Emmy- and Tony-winning actress, Cicely Tyson, who distinguished herself in theater, film, and television, died on Thursday afternoon. She was 96.

For seven decades, this lady entertained, inspired, and represented hope and elegance for many Americans. Sounder, A Woman named Moses, Miss Jane Pittman and so many more distinguished examples brought her name to stardom. Her career landed her some of the most memorable roles imaginable.

Few knew that she was far more than talent. She loved God, loved life, and persevered through one adversity after another without losing love for people or their creator. Gone from this world, having just finished her memoir entitled JUST AS I AM. She had just sent me one of the first copies off the press. I started reading it this morning, never realizing that the lady would be leaving the stage before the day would end.

Good night, Miss Tyson. We will see you in the morning.

Evangelist Duranice Pace 1958-2021

Church Of God In Christ International Mass Choir

2thom Spahornssoredla ·

With bowed down heads and sorrowful hearts, Dr. Judith Christie McAllister, International Minister of Music and President, along with the entire constituency of the International Music Department, Church Of God In Christ, are saddened to announce the passing of Evangelist Duranice Pace, the oldest daughter of the Pace Family and member of the legendary Anointed Pace Sisters.

Born May 13, 1958 in Atlanta, Georgia and raised in a small community called Poole Creek, to the union of Superintendent Murphy Pace, Jr. & Bettie Pace --- Evangelist Duranice Pace was destined and preordained to sing His praises and to preach and teach the Word as a dynamic woman of God.

The second-born child of ten children in all (brother, Bishop Murphy Pace, III transitioned in 2011), Evangelist Pace grew up singing in school and community talent shows while traveling from church to church singing and making hearts glad with her unique, strong, God-given voice. She graduated from the Walter F. George High School in Atlanta, Georgia. She continued her education at the O.R.M. Word Processing School in Atlanta and also Andrew College in LaGrange Georgia where she majored in music under a music scholarship.

Together, Evangelist Pace and her 8 sisters (Phyllis, June, Lashun, Melonda, Dejuaii, Leslie, Latrice and Lydia) joined to form the legendary, iconic gospel group, "The Anointed Pace Sisters." These extraordinary women of God have been nominated and performed at the Stellar Awards, along with appearances in blockbuster movies such as "The Fighting Temptations" with Beyoncé' Knowles and Cuba Gooding, Jr., and Tyler Perry's "Medea's Family Reunion."

The Anointed Pace Sisters released five albums during their tenure, 1992's "U-Know" with Savoy Records, 1995's "My Purpose" again with Savoy, then 2003's "It's Already Done" by their own label Gospel Pace, 2006's "Return" by Tyscot Records, and 2009's "Access Granted" from Tyscot Records. The group's albums U-Know, My Purpose, Return, and Access Granted" charted on the Billboard Gospel Albums chart. Recently, The Anointed Pace Sisters were blessed with the opportunity to use their voices on numerous commercials for Jiffy Lube International, Incorporated. Evangelist Pace also enjoyed travel as a featured vocalist with Ambassador Dr. Bobby Jones and his Nashville Super Choir.

In January 2020, Evangelist Pace's autobiography, "Poison to Purpose: A Gospel Legend's Journey" was released on Noah's Ark Publishing. The famed gospel singer also released a few solo projects independently, including, 2013's "Just Duranice," and 2019's "The Making of A Solider."

A daughter of the Church Of God In Christ, Evangelist Pace was a Jurisdictional Elect-Lady of Evangelism and National Evangelist, who has been blessed to minister to U.S. & Korean soldiers. Evangelist Pace has traveled across this country and around the world preaching and singing for God. Evangelist Pace also founded The Anointed Word Restoration Fellowship Church in Christiansburg, Virginia.

In addition to her sisters, Evangelist Pace leaves to cherish her legacy her only begotten son, Mr. Demarcus Wardell Love, along with a great host of nieces, nephews, cousins, her fellow gospel artists, and industry friends.

May the Lord grant peace, comfort, and strength as we undergird the entire Pace family with our extended love and prayers in the transition of this beloved woman of God and cherished voice in the Gospel Music community.

Birthday Memorial MOTHER CHRISTINE BURNSIDE

January 29th

Mother Christine Burnside was the precious and graceful mother of my husband, Simmie Lee Burnside, Jr. She was married for over 60 years to Deacon Simmie Lee Burnside, Sr. (deceased 2019). They were blessed with four children: Elizabeth Jane Burnside (deceased), Simmie Lee Burnside, Jr., Charolett Burnside, and Sylvia Call Burnside (deceased).

The family was truly blessed by this loving, caring, and giving woman of God. Mother Burnside was a professional seamstress who had renowned clients. She was an interior decorator and talented crafter. People sought her businesses from near and wide. However, Mother Burnside loved to bless her family and friends by these skills and creativity.

The family was longtime members at Grace Temple Church of God in Christ. Elder James Taylor was the pastor. Mother Burnside loved the Lord with all of her heart. She was a prayer warrior, Sunday school teacher, Bible teacher, Prayer and Bible Band Leader and served in various other church departments. Mother had a sweet spirit of joy for the Lord. She rejoiced in dance and praise for the Lord in church or wherever the Spirit was moving and she was there!

Her devotion to her husband, children, granddaughter, and family will never be forgotten. Mother Burnside also dearly loved her mother, Mrs. Ida Austin. She was her dedicated and loving caregiver until her mother's death.

We shall never forget Mother Christine Burnside because she lives on in our hearts.

Best-selling Author

Playwright Izola Bird states, "I have put on stage plays for many years. God has blessed me to write several books. Now I'm venturing out to make my first short film."

However, she is busy with her new business, of creating and marketing cuddly dolls. She remarks, "It is crafting into a unique design that even grownups will love. The design makes it one of a kind when it comes to finding something you'll adore as time goes by. I designed the dolls and hand sewn them except for their clothes, the onesies. Also I had to tie all the hair in place. My dolls are 16 inches."

"My ministry is the gift that keeps on giving. It has opened up opportunities for writing, making dolls and painting. I work as a caregiver. I used to work as a paraprofessional at a local school in the Midwest. I volunteer my time in my community wherever I'm needed. I serve the homeless, Africa American women with breast cancer, sponsors Christmas in April events, and work with our seniors," said Playwright Izola Bird.

God is Your Helper!

Meditation Scripture: (Psalm 22: 19 ESV).

"But you, O LORD, do not be far off! O you my help, come quickly to my aid!"

By Ramelle T. Lee c2021

Are you facing a situation in your life that you can't handle on your own? No matter what you do, nothing works. Don't drown in frustration, fear and self-pity. Invite Jesus into your situation.

God knows exactly what challenges you are dealing with. He's waiting for you to come to Him. He has the right answer to every situation you will ever face.

You may think your situation looks bleak and hopeless, but nothing is too hard for God to resolve.

While you are waiting in expectation for God to work on your behalf, exercise your faith with these actions:

- Build your faith by reading scriptures in the Bible that will give you strength, hope, peace and comfort.
- Stand on God's Word, believing that as you trust Him to handle your situation; everything will work out according to His plans for you.
- Stay encouraged and don't give into feelings of anxiety, stress and worry.
- Be prepared to take whatever steps that God desires for you to do to help turn your situation around for your good.
- Praise and thank God in the midst of your waiting time.
- Anticipate a breakthrough and rejoice knowing God will come through for you.

Shout for joy! What you thought was difficult and impossible; God has come to your rescue and given you the victory!

With a grateful and thankful heart, you can smile, feeling happy, instead of sad and weary. God has taken the weight and burden from off your shoulders. He has restored your peace and given you a miraculous miracle, designed especially for you!

He Knows

By Christine V. Mitchell
Staff Writer & Ministry Leader, London,

Has anyone ever said to you "I've known you since the day you were born?". I am sure MANY people have. Or "I've known you since you were THIS small" or "THIS high" (holding their hand up, palm downward to illustrate)?

Well, one morning in December 2019, while I was in the kitchen stirring my tea, the thought came to me of how God said to the prophet Jeremiah, "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you, before you were born, I set you apart ..." (Jeremiah 1:5a). Then I started to meditate on that thought and said to myself, 'Wow this is absolutely AMAZING!' So many things can happen to us during our lives and in challenging times, when life has dealt a blow, we may wonder about God's thoughts of us. We know that He sees and knows everything but may still wonder. Our minds can even get carried away wondering about what people think. We may feel 'less than' because of failing to meet up to their expectations, or may unfairly judge ourselves, though we may have faced battles unknown to anyone but God. Psalm 139 expresses awe and wonder at God's intimate knowledge of us (verses 1-4), of how He is our Creator (verses 13-14) and of His precious thoughts towards us (verses 17-18). It is comforting to realise that God was THERE in our yesterday. We were in His heart, His mind, His plan. He had our very DNA ready and waiting. Before we were formed, He knew us ... oh wow! And He has been there in every trial we have ever faced. Every mountain! Every valley!

The people who may have 'known you since the day you were born' do not know what God knows. They were not there in all the ups and downs of life. God was and is. Whatever you are going through right now, God has seen. He knows and cares. He is right where you are, ready to lift you up ~ to bring you through. He was there in your yesterday, He is there in your today and will be there in ALL your tomorrows. Amid these trying times, take courage dear friends. Keep hoping in the Lord ~ "casting ALL your cares upon Him for He cares for you" (1Peter 5: 7, NKJV).

Love Edifies

I had an interesting experience the other day, I was at the store and getting ready to checkout. There were two cashiers open and both had long lines. I got in line and noticed the lady in front of me had her arms full. I had a basket inside my cart because I started out with a few items and once I filled it, I went and got a cart. So I offered to empty my basket and give it to her. She thanked me and said how much it helped. We laughed about how we each came to the store for only a couple of items and now walking out with many more.

While I was checking out, I heard some rumbling at the other line. At first I didn't think much about it but it quickly became clear there was a man yelling at the man in front of him. Not sure what it was about but could guess he felt the man in front of him wronged him somehow. This went on for a while and as I left for my car, I breathed a prayer for things to deescalate. Unfortunately, the one man followed the other out and continued the berating and name-calling. A lady yelled out "enough already, the cops are on their way".

As I drove away, I couldn't help think about my experience. God's ways of love and kindness to our fellow man brought such joy and freedom while demanding our rights can bring anger, and bitterness. One brings freedom the other brings bondage. I know what my mood was that day, but what kind of mood do you think that gentleman had for the rest of his day?

Taking the higher road is hard and near impossible...in our own strength. God never asks us to do anything in our own strength, instead He says He's placed His Spirit within us to EMPOWER us to do those things. So it's not "I need to try harder" to do what's right but "I need to allow Him to do it through me". We are bankrupt of spirit and can't do it on our own.

Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good. (Romans 12:21)
Not returning evil for evil or insult for insult but giving a blessing instead... I Peter 3:4
Knowledge makes arrogant but love edifies.
I Corinthians 8:1

Overcome evil with good; it's evil to treat others badly in the same manner they treat us; that evil destroys our very soul. The Bible said "overcome" that evil by doing what is good and right. We tend to think this is in our interactions with strangers, acquaintances, colleagues but what about our intimate relationships, how can we apply it when we are wronged? What about when someone sins against you? Are you tired of how you've been showing up? How do you want to show up differently?

Happy Birthday!

MAY GOD CONTINUE TO BLESS YOU ALWAYS
May He give you the desires of your heart!

*Ms. Sandra Hickman ...
Australian Ministry Leader and Staff Writer <>*

“Goodbye January!” I’ve waved goodbye to January and I’m on my way to meet February. Truly December and January came and went so fast there was no time to linger. Christmas and New Year’s Day are already memories and I’ve been catapulted into another month. It’s like....rewind, press play, repeat. Do you ever feel like life is just a replay? Same old-same old; you look back and nothing much has changed except your reflection in the mirror! In 2021 let us reach out with our hearts in our hands and say, “Take it Lord; it belongs to You. This year, my heart will follow Yours exclusively.” As I embark upon this New Year, I want to see deeper and deeper into the things of God. I want to see the revival of the Holy Spirit break out here in my homeland of Australia. We are believing for it! I am believing for revival across the world. We need the watchmen and women on the walls of the nations resolutely interceding and watching.

I want all my children and grandchildren to know Jesus Christ more gloriously and to love Him as much as I do. My heart cries for my unsaved beloveds to be lovers of Jesus. To see the healing balm of the Lord revealed in my whole family. I want to sit longer with Jesus, to lean in closer to hear the whispering of the Holy Spirit....to glean, gather, harvest and reap the things He’s showing me. To catch His words of wisdom. My goal is to prepare. To BE ready. To buckle up the whole armor of God and stand stronger than ever before! Let us follow the heart of Jesus exclusively. January has gone. It’s time for change. I am praying and interceding for You. Please pray for me.

Be Still!

By Wanda J. Burnside

When the peace of God is in your life, you can be still and find peace. Our entire world is going through COVID-19 at different levels. Challenges and changes are all around us. Each day, we don't know what to expect. However, when you allow God to speak to your heart, you will have peaceful focus on life.

The handsome young man pictured below is, Mr. Jordan L'Ecluse of Australia. He is the grandson of our staff writer and ministry leader, Sandra Hickman. His parents are Mrs. Tari Nsalange and Pastor Raymound Nsalange. Jordan is dearly loved by his family and friends because he is caring, helpful and very kind.

I don't personally know Jordan. I have never been to Australia or met him. But, I love seeing his posts on Facebook. In the midst of whatever is going on in his family or around him, he never looks upset or bitter. Jordan knows that God is in charge, so he is always calm in every situation. I love this photo because I feel that Jordan is thinking about the Lord and looking to Him regardless of what is happening!

Go! Hannah! Go!

Hannah Pettiford is a very busy little lady! She is always doing something special in life. She lives in North Carolina with her mother, Nicky Scales and family. Hannah has been in our newsletter many times for the many events, activities and outstanding things she is actively involved in school, church, community and her family.

When she was only three years old, we reported about how she sent bottles and bottles here to Flint, MI during the great water crisis. Yes, Hannah got involved with the help of her mother and school.

Hannah is now eight years old. She is in the Brownies. It is National Girl Scouts and Brownie time in the USA. That means, COOKIE selling time to raise funds to help others. The report is that so far Hannah is a top seller of cookies and she might be the grand-prize winner of sales. If she wins, Hannah will receive prizes and special awards. We want Hannah to WIN! Pray that she will be blessed in her efforts. Hannah has a big heart and cares about others. We love...Hannah!

Words from Nicky Scales, Hannah's mother: "Hannah is a very intelligent and loving person. She loves music, dance and singing. She is very active in her community. She is a Girl Scout at the Brownie level and plans to be a Girl Scout leader one day. Hannah likes to read bible studies and always asks when it rains "Mommy, who made God mad now?" She has taken an interest in cooking and wants to start her own business one day. She does extremely well in school and makes me proud daily. For the 2nd quarter of school, she received all 4's which is all A's and was presented with the Presidential Award. My daughter is a blessing and has been a blessing."
