GOD BLESS 2016

Dear Readers,

Here we are in 2016. I cannot look ahead into 2016 and try to anticipate what it will be like. I have heard all kinds of slogans, messages, themes, comments and predictions about this year, 2016. Everybody is speaking positively and optimistically about this year. Nobody wants to speak negatively about 2016. There are many positive thinkers out here.

But, I want to wait and hear from the true prophets of God who have been continuously prevailing and crying out at the altar. I hunger to hear from those who have been hidden away in their prayer closets seeking God for His Word for this time.

Much hurting and suffering went on in 2015. People had crisis after crisis throughout 2015. Pain and disappointments escalated throughout many lives of our family, our friends and our very own life. Heartbreak and tragedy gripped many across our land and around the world. It touched our lives, too.

We are living in perilous times. We have been living in the midst of great trouble and growing fear. It has been bitter.

I am acquainted with sorrows and fear. In 2015, I experienced all kinds of tests and trials. It penetrated my life and that of my husband, family and friends. My friends were constantly calling me and emailing me concerning all that they were going through. There was a true cry for PRAYER! I cried a lot and prayed a whole lot. I thought that I wasn't going to make it through...yes, oh yes. But, here I am...and it was by holding on to the Word of God and prayer that carried me...carried me through. I believe that many of you can say that God brought you through, too.

In this issue, I am featuring two of my poems. I strongly feel that you can find a line, or several lines, that relate to your experiences of 2015. I am sure that you can identify with my message in the following poem, "You Were There". Oh, where would we be if the Lord wasn't there?

Looking back at 2015...

YOU WERE THERE

By Wanda J. Burnside

Lord, You were there

When tears rolled down my face,
And when I fell again
In painful disgrace.

You were there

When my plans crumbled to my feet,
And when I walked away
In bitter defeat.

You were there

When my life was falling apart,
And when I didn't know
Where to go or to start.

You were there

In the lies, scandals, and shame;
And when everyone somehow
Forgot my name.

You were there

When friends left me one by one,
And when I hopelessly thought
Nothing could be done.

You were there

When trouble bombarded my home,
And when my children were rebellious
So they left and into the streets they roam.

You were there

When I was down to my last dime,
And when I cried so hard...
Because I wanted to end it all this time.

You were there

When death took my loved ones away,
And when I felt like
I couldn't go on another day.

You were there

When the doctor's report was bad,
And when my heart was
Fearful, heavy, and sad.

You were there

In the morning before
The birds began to sing
And in the midnight
When I worried about everything.

Lord, You were there

When I turned and ran back to You.
You lovingly held me
And gave me life anew!

Copyright 2002 – Revised 2015

"And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed" (Deut. 31:8 KJV).

Looking ahead to 2016...

Readers, we can only go forward into 2016 by giving everything to the Lord. This is the ONLY WAY to make it! Nothing else will work. Absolutely nothing!

What we have been worrying about and dealing with all through 2015, must be unloosed from our grips and released to the Lord. The more we wrestle and fret over things in our lives that are troublesome or a big headache, the more frustrated we become. God doesn't want us to be like that at all. This is not His plan for our lives.

I hope my poem, “Let God Handle It”, will encourage you to release your worries to Him in 2016. Enter His rest. May His peace abide with you.

LET GOD HANDLE IT

By Wanda J. Burnside

*You have done all that you can.
There is nothing more you can do.
There is no more to say.*

*Release it. Let it go! Give it to God.
Release it into God’s hands.*

*Step back and walk away from it.
Remove yourself from it.
Free yourself from it.
Let God handle it.*

*It might be over and time to move on . . .
Then He will remove it.
Yet, there might still be hope in it . . .
Then, He will breathe on it
And make it new.
He can call what is dead to life!*

*Give whatever it is to Him.
Let God handle it.*

“Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved” (Psalm 55:22 KJV).

And so, my faithful readers...in 2016 let us pray for each other. Let us trust God and put our confidence in Him. Here is my scripture for you for every day, week and month in 2016...

(Proverbs 3:3-10 KJV)

"My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments: For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:

So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil. It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

PRAYING BY DIVINE REVELATION

by Pastor Raymond of Australia

Pastor Raymond is the senior Pastor at Jabez Ministries and Missions International in the city of Kwinana, Western Australia. He is also Founding Director of the DIVINE CUTTING EDGE MINISTRIES INTERNATIONAL, (DCEMI) based in Florida, USA.

Jeremiah 33:3 UKJV

“Call to me and I will answer you, and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know”

One Sunday morning before the main service started, during our church intercessory prayer time, we suddenly realised one of our intercessors was not there to pray with us. This is something that she has never done since she joined our church. She is a faithful member of our intercessory team.

One of our pastors, sensing something was wrong, immediately went to our sister's house to check up on her as she lives close by the church.

The rest of us started to pray for her, asking God to reveal what was going on. In the midst of much worship and supplication to the Lord, the Holy Spirit began to reveal things that were happening to our fellow intercessor. God revealed that she had been under massive spiritual attack throughout the week. So much so that her body was weak, added to this, her spirit was in such immense fear that she could barely move. God gave a vision of a snake oppressing her. The amount of spiritual attack she was under was so extremely high that she was disoriented and confused.

When the pastor returned she confirmed that our intercessor was under a massive attack by the enemy the devil. She'd had three dreams, while under attack, in which there were snakes and witchcraft, exactly the same as it was shown to us in the time of prayer. And, she was unable to move from her bed. Now, if it wasn't for the Holy Spirit revealing what was going on in our beloved sister's life at that point in time, we were going to pray amiss. Our praying was going to be ineffective, and a sheer waste of time.

Praying by revelation - is the most effective way of praying because at that time God reveals things that are imperative and most paramount to pray for. The person praying is in tune with God through the Holy Spirit and acts in prayer for the other person. In that precise moment, God is revealing things which amount to the perfect will of God, and the results are evident.

It's when the will of God is revealed to the intercessor to pray specific prayers that bring real results, and the evidence of the hand of God is seen at work. The Bible says we do not know how to pray but the Holy Spirit helps and prays for us with groaning that cannot be uttered.

The Bible tells us that if anyone has an ear, then he should hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. As the church today, we need to be so sensitive to the Holy Spirit when we stand to pray for things, recognising the will of God for that moment of need.

Jesus said to the Father in heaven when He was about to be crucified in that garden, "Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done." (Mt 26:39b - UKJV).

This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. In that moment of praying the will of God, we pull down strongholds effortlessly. We operate in the manifestation of God's victory over evil spirits such as the spirits of bondage, spirits of infirmity, Leviathan and Jezebel spirits, and all powers of the enemy. There is so much spiritual benefit to understanding prayer by revelation. Once exposed to this kind of praying you will never go back into praying casual prayers, dry prayers, religious prayers and prayers that make no sense.

On that particular Sunday morning.... after our intercessors had prayed according to what God had revealed to us, we subsequently received confirmation from our dear sister who was attacked. On that very same day, she was touched of God and she was made whole again.

In praying the will of God there is restoration, healing, deliverance, peace and joy. The evidence of answered prayer cultivates deeper faith and dependability on God's sovereignty over the earth and over all situations we can ever encounter.

When we pray casual religious prayers, we limit the unlimited God with our unsolved circumstances, which in turn affect us because there were no results achieved when prayer was offered. God has promised to show us the great and unsearchable things which we don't know, when we call to Him. Exposure to unsearchable things we desire to know changes the atmosphere, as we enter into higher dimensions of revelation. We pray precise, specific, effectual fervent prayers that will avail much, much more.

Praying by revelation is a dangerous weapon against the kingdom of darkness - The power that comes as a result of this kind of praying is immense, and so potent that the devil can't stand it, nor do anything about it but to flee. Our God is alive today and He is surely speaking and showing unsearchable things to those that seek him in faith.

The church, or individual Christians, can receive warnings and be alerted of things the enemy is devising to entrap the church, to gain direction and uncover purpose. We receive inspired thoughts about situations and circumstances. Paul says, "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God" (Romans 8: 14 - UKJV).

In this day and age, we need God's snipers in the spirit! A people who will hear God's voice so accurately and do as the Holy Spirit says at that precise time to save the day, or someone in desperate need of a miracle. Jesus says, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me ..." (John 10: 27 - UKJV).

Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastors and Teachers fall in sin, while church members are attacked all the time. Therefore, we need revelation to prevent the enemy from coming to steal from the church; to prevent him killing the precious gifts in the body of Christ and destroying the mission that we are commissioned to do by our Commander-in-chief.... The Almighty God.

God speaking + Intercessors' hearing His voice + acting on the word at the precise God-given time = Answered prayers, major results and effective victories in spiritual warfare!

Mr. Michael David Barnes of Detroit, MI

August 9, 1949-December 23, 2015

The greatly loved husband of my precious cousin, Mrs. Michele Barnes.
Mrs. Barnes is one of our recently appointed Contributing Writers of the Lamp Newsletter.

Michael David Barnes was born on August 9, 1949 in Detroit, Michigan to Helen and Oscar Barnes, Sr. Michael was the fourth child of nine children. He has six brothers and two sisters.

Michael worked in the family business, Oscar Trucking/Hauling, throughout his junior high school and Chadsey High School years. He was very proud of his hard work ethics and experiences that he and his brothers shared. Michael often spoke of the type of hard work that they did. He fondly talked about how, in their business, they had the great task of lifting heavy things, knocking down walls, removing roofs and of course, driving a truck at the age of fourteen. These skills and opportunities made him more than qualified when he became a semi-truck driver for Coca Cola Bottling Company in Detroit, Michigan. He was a dedicated employee until he retired in 2006.

Michael married Michele Gardner on June 30, 1972. From this union, they were blessed with four beautiful and loving children: Helena, Michael, Jr., Shuan and Shalonda. God blessed them to be a very caring family. In later years, God blessed them with nine grandchildren. Michael and Michele became grandparents with huge hearts, of being involved in the lives of their grandchildren and their families. They were committed to build a strong family and generation.

Michael was a fisherman. His favorite fishing spots were off of 12th Street, Jeanette's Creek, Fort Wayne and many more. However, he loved most of all to be at home on his back porch. His family and friends will remember those wonderful days of sitting there with him. It was a special time of being together, enjoying the summer air, admiring their porch of beautiful hanging flowers and a yard of singing birds. Michael, Michele, their children and grandchildren loved the vast gardens in his yard. Michael loved to watch over his vegetable and flower gardens that he worked so hard to plant each year.

Throughout his life, Michael was a strong social activist and political advocate. He was a young protester for civil rights in the 1960's. Michael voted in every local and national election.

Michael leaves to cherish his memory and life, his devoted and loving wife, Michele, of 43 years' of marriage, their children: Helena (Edwin) Michael, Shuan (Lashanda), Shalonda (Eric) who gave inspiration to Michael's purpose and passion to live was to see nine grand-children: Kristopher, Kyvonte, Khalil, Toree, Levi, Jady, Mya and Mariah. Also to cherish his life are his brothers and sisters: Oscar Jr. (Cynthia), Robert (Patricia), Vernon, Dwight (Angela) Kim (Ursula) Alvin, Linda (Pete) and Pamela; his sister-in-law, Ms. Lola Darlene Gardner his brother-in-law, Mr. Daniel Gardner, his family, uncles, aunts, cousins, and a host of friends who will miss him so dearly.

Dearest Michele,

We surround you and your lovely family in our prayers. We extend our sincere heartfelt sympathy to each one of you. God has carried you and He will continue to always be there with you. He cares! Just lean on the Lord for He will comfort you and guide you through every day.

My avid prayer is that God heals and restore the city of Detroit."

BIRTHDAYS!

JANUARY MEMORIAL BIRTHDAYS

MOTHER CHRISTINE BURNSIDE,

the beloved mother of Mr. Simmie Lee Burnside, Jr., my husband.

Mother Burnside was a devoted wife, beloved mother of four, precious grandmother and dear great-grandmother. She stayed busy in her home and in the church. Mother Burnside was a prayer warrior, Bible teacher and dedicated to serve as an intercessory prayer leader. God blessed her with bountiful gifts and talents as a seamstress, tailor, dressmaker, and home interior decorator. Mother Burnside died December 15, 2010.

January 15, 1929-April 4, 1968

“Martin Luther King Jr. was born on January 15, 1929, in Atlanta, Georgia. King, both a Baptist minister and civil-rights activist, had a seismic impact on race relations in the United States, beginning in the mid-1950s. Among many efforts, King headed the SCLC. Through his activism, he played a pivotal role in ending the legal segregation of African-American citizens in the South and other areas of the nation, as well as the creation of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965. King received the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964, among several other honors. King was assassinated in April 1968, and continues to be remembered as one of the most lauded African-American leaders in history, often referenced by his 1963 speech, ‘I Have a Dream.’ “

Dr. King married Coretta Scott in 1953. To this holy matrimony, God blessed them with four children: Yolanda, Martin the III, Dexter and Reverend Bernice King.

The life and history of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. is too vast to write in full here in this featured section and newsletter. However, I encourage you to read and study about this great man. He went through many trials and tests to stand for the civil rights of African-Americans and for all people in America to have liberty and rights. He accomplished and achieved many things during his lifetime. He was a non-violent leader. Dr. King was a man of God who exercised great faith in almighty God. His legacy lives on.

Getting Ready for Annual Valentine's Day Ministries!

This is our 21st year to celebrate Valentine's Day through our MATCHLESS LOVE MINISTRY. We are giving special gifts and our gospel tracts to three outreach centers. They will receive gift packages consisting of candies, flowers, stuffed toys, key chains, bookmarks, inspirational booklets, and other items to express love and care to the hurting and brokenhearted. We will be packing boxes to send to go ministry centers in Michigan, Oregon, and other locations.

We ask for your prayers. This project requires a lot of hard work. Matchless Love is the foundation to our ministry. God called us to reach out to people during this holiday and show an outpouring of love. Simmie and I have experienced many things through these 21 years with this project. We started in 1995 and we have spread the love of God far and wide. We have presented a vital message of matchless love across Canada, the United States, Italy, Africa, and in other locations in the world with the message of John 3:16....God so loved the world that He gave His Only Begotten Son to save whosoever believes on Him. Then they get everlasting life! It is a win, win, win BLESSING!

You can stand with us with your support. We accept any amount. Nothing is too small! Contact us - Our information is at the end of the newsletter. We thank you in advance.

TRUST GOD

by Wanda J. Burnside

Only stand on God's Word.
Don't accept the negative things
That you have heard.

God has a perfect plan just for you.
Put all of your trust in Him
And see what He will do!

*"Call unto me, and I will answer thee,
And show thee great and mighty things,
Which thou knowest not"
Jeremiah 33:4 (KJV).*

*"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you,
saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil,
to give you an expected end"
Jeremiah 29:11(KJV).*
