14th Anniversary

Dear Lord, We need YOU!

Dear Readers,

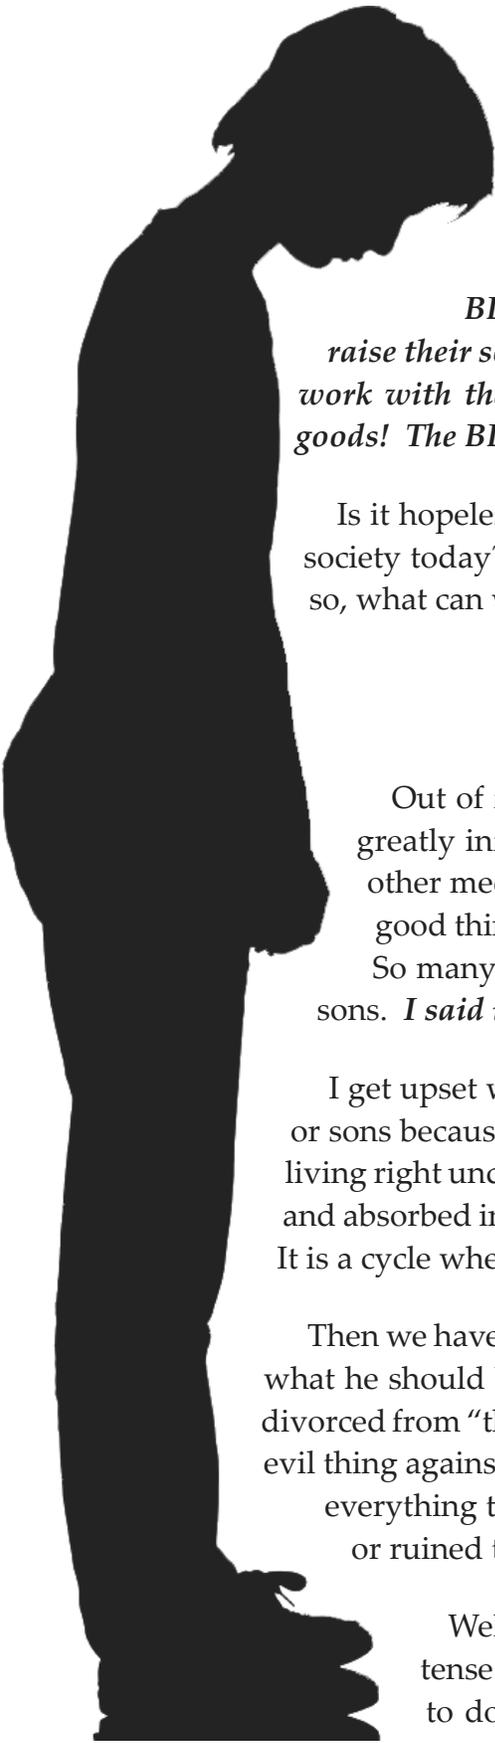

I have heard from so many readers concerning the theme of my recent newsletter, Mama! Save Your Son! When I began getting feedback and comments due to this theme, my heart broke. I have heard from mothers of every race, age, economical level, and religious belief. These dear mothers have expressed their deep concerns and heartfelt stories about their own sons. Oh, how I hold each mother in my prayers.

I have also heard from a dad. Yes, just from one man. However, I am thankful because he took the time to write to me and shared his concerns. He is a leading businessman in our community. He is a committed and loving father of two sons. His comments were touching and so right about many things.

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

Every day the news and media swamps us with bad reports of violence in our neighborhoods, cities, schools, and just about everywhere. We see young men gunned down and splatter in their own blood. Some are in gangs committing horrible acts of crime, There are those who are innocent yet, they get blown away – KILLED - in the crossfire or just because...no real reason.

There is an evil plot to destroy our young men...and our little boys, too. There is every kind of destruction present among us aimed at getting rid of our sons, grandsons, and the young men among us. What and who do we blame it all on? The Lord knows that the finger pointing and blame has widely been spread around.

BLAMED: Schools are not relevant to what is really needed for our boys and young men. BLAMED: The church is caught up into raising money and building a bigger church. They are not investing in what is really needed for our boys. BLAMED: None of the government programs work because we don't get enough funds to make it work. BLAMED: Families are broken and can't be fixed until their deadbeat dads are fixed.

BLAMED: There are too many single mothers who are unable to control and raise their sons in the home. BLAMED: The police and law enforcement agencies can't work with these rebellious, hotheaded, hostile, and troubled boys. They are damaged goods! The BLAMED game goes on endlessly.

Is it hopeless to change the circumstances concerning the boys and young men in our society today? Can we get a grip on what is happening to our boys and young men? If so, what can we do?

IT'S BEYOND ME!

Out of frustration and feeling inadequate to do anything for young boys who are greatly influenced by their friends, by what is being offered on television and every other media attraction and vast distractions, we throw our hands up! Now, that is a good thing. We shouldn't do this in defeat or for giving up, but to surrender to God! So many of us have not completely allowed God to get involved in the lives of our sons. I said it and mean it.

I get upset when I listen to mothers who say that they can't do anything with their son or sons because he needs a man or dad in his life. I have seen families where the father is living right under their noses and he is not a real part of the family...he is working overtime and absorbed in getting the job done. He works and comes home to rest to go back to work. It is a cycle where he never knows what is going on. So, what about that?

Then we have women who are bitter because the boy's dad is totally negligent concerning what he should be committed to do. We have women or mothers who have separated and divorced from "that man" for various reasons and that is the end of that! They have said every evil thing against the boy's dad and accused him of everything. Mama might be justified for everything that she feels and says about him, but Mama's angry words have destroyed or ruined the relationship that their sons need from their dads.

Well, yes there are two sides to everything and I know that many of you are tense right now and feel strongly justified in hating the day that you had anything to do with that man who came into your life and you had his baby boy. You never thought things would end up like it has and you have turned your back on "that man!"

Okay. And there still remains that son of yours all tangled up in trouble and confused about a whole lot of things. So, what do you do?

STEP OUT and SEEK GOD

In the Bible story about Moses, his mother was married. She had a husband, but the Bible did not state his name. His name was not significant, because the story was about how Moses' mother dealt with her son. That was major to our Lord.

We find that Moses' mother looked upon him as being very good-looking, handsome. She saw something very special in her son. So, she was determined to protect him from the evil threats and killings of Pharaoh against the first born sons of the Hebrews.

Moses' mother hid him for three months somewhere in their home. She kicked into SuperMama! She hid him as long as she could to make sure that nothing would happen to him. She did not want him killed.

Then, when she could no longer keep him hid safely in their house, she put her other plan in order. I know that she had been thinking about what to do all of the time. She didn't wait until it was too late. She jumped right into action when it was time to do plan B which was to make an ark for Moses to float down the Nile River.

What a choice she had decided to do! She worked on the ark herself. She made sure that it would be strong enough to hold Moses. She did all she could so that the ark would float and not sink! She had a lot of nerve to do a truly daring thing like that. I can't even imagine how she could do that.

I wonder if she discussed this plan with her husband? Was there an argument going on up in their household about what she planned to do? What did Moses father say? Did she even tell him about her plan. I mean, come on, just think...she was sending their son Moses down the mighty Nile River! Moses was a baby!

Regardless of what was going on up in their house and what was happening in their nation, Mama had a HUGE PLAN to save her son's life!

She trusted God to step in and do something supernaturally much stronger than her fear of what Pharaoh planned to do. She stepped out on faith and trusted in God in spite of what Pharaoh was doing. Pharaoh ordered that the first born sons of the Hebrews be killed, but she locked her faith in believing that God would do something supernatural for her son!

A SUPERNATURAL BLESSING!

When Moses' Mama released him in her homemade ark to float down the river, she actually was releasing him into God's hands. She stepped out of her natural fears, worries and concerns. She positioned herself to do all that she could to save Moses. She had a purpose and plan for everything that she was doing.

Because of her faith, God moved in. She activated the power of God to move in her situation and concerns to save her son, Moses. When she stepped out on faith, everything lined up for her to get that supernatural blessing for him.

Mama was empowered to make things happen! Miriam, her daughter and Moses' sister, became attached to this move. That's what happens when you release yourself into the hands of God. Miriam wanted to see what was going to happen. She became one of the major players in the supernatural move of God. She became attached to this move and was right there when her brother, Moses, floated right down to the bathing Pharaoh's daughter and her helpers.

God moved in the heart of Pharaoh's daughter to open the ark and to discover baby Moses safely inside. She decided to keep him, but she knew she did not have flowing breast milk to feed and nourish him. Quickly Miriam responded and spoke right up telling them about how she knew someone who could provide that needed food for baby Moses. It was their own Mama...Moses' Mama!

Look how God allowed it all to work out. Moses' Mama miraculously received him back to take care of him. She was even paid for doing this! Pharaoh's daughter paid her for what Moses' Mama could do naturally and lovingly.

MOSES! MOSES!

Moses' life was fully amazing. He had supernatural encounters throughout his life. God used him and worked through him to save a nation! God spoke to him. Moses was a great man!

GOD HAS A SUPERNATURAL PLAN FOR YOUR SONS!

Mamas! Mamas! It is time to seek God to move supernaturally on your behalf for your sons! Get in position to allow God to work through you to bless your son(s). Step out on faith and move to save your son(s) from destruction!

Look at your baby son, your little boy, that teenage son, your young man son, and your adult son with faith and hope for God to save your son! Even if your son is grown and living on his own, there is hope for him! Become that steadfast praying mother who doesn't give up! Rely on God to save your son. Put your complete confidence in God and He will position you to be used to bless your son! Don't give up! Don't give in! Stand strong in the Lord! God has a supernatural plan for your son. He will change things if you can believe it!

A WORD ABOUT SONS GONE WRONG

Mamas, some of you have sons locked away in a jail, a prison, or living in gang life. Your heart has been so broken over what has happened. You feel like it is hopeless for you and your son(s)...God still have a supernatural plan. Hold on and trust God.

Greetings from AUSTRALIA...

Saving Our Sons

Many mothers have faced monumental hardships to save their sons. Only a mother's love can navigate this heart-torn emotional journey. But when the jagged edges of your frayed and torn emotions are just too much to bear, God steps in and that's when you surrender it all. You know that this is a God-sized problem and His shoulders are much bigger than yours!

I am continuing my previous article about my grandson, Jordan, whose life has been a journey of love and miracles. His life was saved by God who then handed the baton to his Mama Tari who is my daughter. Through prayers and steadfast faith in God, we have seen amazing miracles concerning how God came in and moved in Jordan's life. There were physical challenges and gross medical concerns for Jordan at his birth. But, we have seen God do miraculous things every step of the way over these years.

God's love is the greatest love of all and it's through that love that you really find the enormity of the beautiful passion and meaning of L O V E.

The following is my poem describing that kind of amazing love.

Love Is . . .

"It's when you can love a person this much and still breathe!"

That's how it was when he was born
He came into this world dead... flat lined
Our emotions ran good and bad.
Loving him hurt so much
Resenting the doctor hurt so much
Everything hurt!

He was eventually revived...
Watching him struggle to live hurt
But he did live!
I thanked God!

He was here yet he was lost to us
On the eighth day
He turned a corner and came back!
I don't know where he went...
But I know God was there!
I think God took him for a purpose
A Jeremiah 29:11 purpose...
And then gave him back.

I can't imagine a world without him
I cannot think of him being just a memory
Someone who was there, only in my faded past...

A painful memory which could never have stopped
I can't imagine being unable to fully remember his beautiful little face
Or searching my mind for the memories of his features

Those beautiful big dark brown eyes
The black picture perfect "painted on"
sculptured eyebrows
The soft cherubic cheeks,
His darling little mouth
which, if could have spoken...
Would have told us unimaginable things

He came into this world like a Tsunami,
Sweeping away all our hopes and dreams!
Everything felt lost,
And everything changed...
Bad dreams are only supposed to happen in your sleep
But this nightmare hit us when our eyes were wide open!

It was too much to bear
I searched my mind for reasons
To shed some light...
But it was dark in there
There was nowhere to hide
I wanted to... but I couldn't

They needed me!
My daughter, her husband
And my new heart's love ...
My newborn grandchild ...
He needed me!
So, numb and broken...
I got off my knees and I carried on

Light came!
Prayers were prayed
Ha! Across the nation people prayed
God heard and HE came!
And along with God, forgiveness came

Spastic Cerebral Palsy...
Yes.
But joy was ever present
The battle was long and arduous
Often-times it still is
But, the candescent joy remains
A constant reminder of a living loving God

I watched him as he walked away one day
And the word
"spectacular" came!
With his faltering gait
and semi clenched fists
Beautiful olive brown
skin, muscular arms
Tousled black hair...
So handsome
He is spectacular!

He is a young man
now...
God has been good!
The life that this baby boy was given has brought him into his future
Though it wasn't the life we asked for ...
We have been touched, changed and made better for it
Better because his being here brings hope and the candescent joy!

His name is Jordan...
Beloved of the Lord
His journey is not over yet
It's just beginning!
The beginning of the awesome plan of God!

JEREMIAH
29:11

"For I know
the plans I have for you
.....
DECLARES THE LORD,
.....
"PLANS TO PROSPER YOU AND NOT TO HARM YOU,
PLANS TO GIVE YOU HOPE
AND A FUTURE.

"It's when you can love Jesus this much and still breathe!"

FIRST LADY CHRISTINE V. MITCHELL, Ministry Leader The Lamp Newsletter Headquarters - UNITED KINGDOM

Greetings from LONDON...

Dearest Mothers,

Along the theme of Wanda's article "Mama, Save Your Son," whatever the circumstances may be that you face, know that the Lord feels the longing and cry of your heart. He cares. He understands. He loves you with an everlasting love. He knows you have tried your best, probably struggling alone. His help is at hand always - every day. He knows the anguish you feel about the things that everyone can see, and He knows the heartache about the unseen battles of which others may not be aware. God sees...He cares. He is our "refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble" (Psalm 46:1 KJV). His ears are open as we cry to Him. The psalmist David said, "In my distress I called to the LORD; I cried to my God for help. From his temple He heard my voice; my cry came before Him, into His ears" (Psalm 18:6 NIV).

Here is my heartfelt and united prayer for sons. I strongly feel that these words are the echo of the cry of your heart:

A PRAYER FOR SONS

Days of worry, hearts full of fear
Lord, we know Your coming is near
Crime and violence, grief and shame
Problems .. far too many to name

Mothers clutching at strands and straws
Fathers walking through the doors
Lord, You know the tears, the grief
The hearts that cry, that long for relief

Touch our sons .. please bring them back
Protect and keep them from evil attacks
Shine Your light and let them see
That You, dear Lord, can set them free

Lord, we pray that they may know
Your mighty love, that they may grow
To walk right into their destiny
To be the people You called them to be
Grant them Lord an abundance of grace
O give them strength to win life's race
Intervene throughout this land
Cover them with Your mighty hand

Help them, Lord, to make righteous choices
Closing their ears to erring voices
Draw them Jesus, close to You
There is nothing You cannot do

Upon Your word, O Lord, we stand
Bring to pass Your will, Your plan
Show our sons Your perfect ways
We give You GLORY, thanks and praise!!

“Built in Detroit”

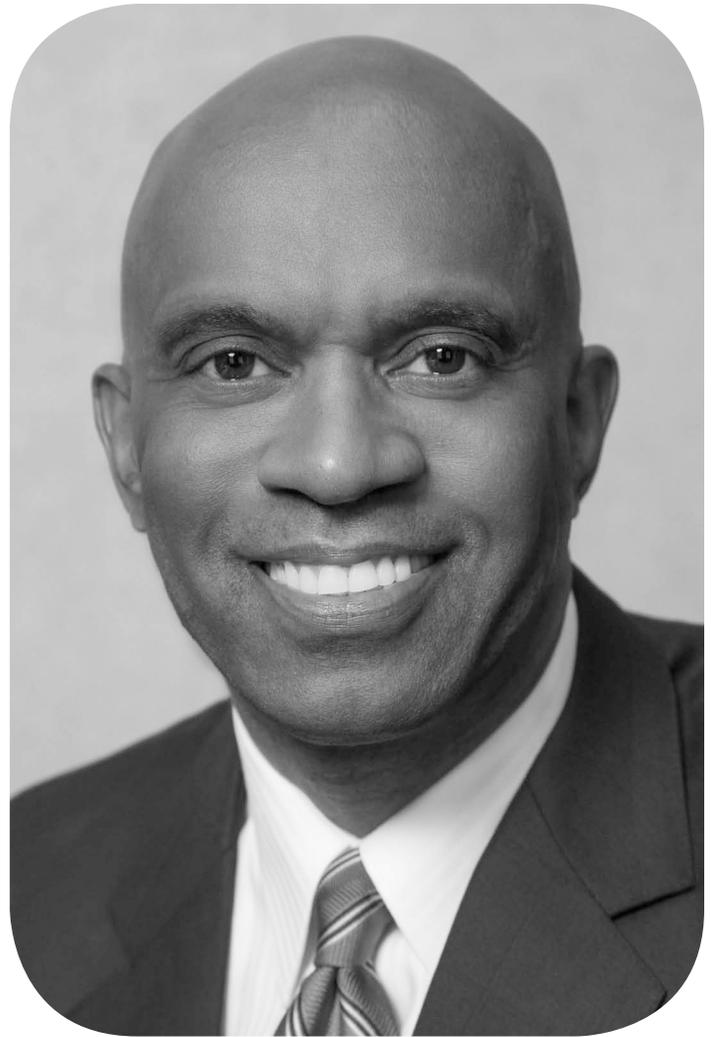

DETROIT. The name and the mention of that city, DETROIT, create negative and positive imagines on minds. There is an ugly stain and stigma on this city due to numerous reasons. The ugliness ranges from a vast multitude of devastating things and problems that really have hurt the city’s imagine, growth, development, schools, communities, government, economy, businesses, and a gross list of other problems.

Nevertheless, Detroit is well known for major things, places and people, too. Detroit is world renown for Motown, gospel music, the car industries, prize-winning boxers, Belle Isle Park, the soda pop companies: Faygo and Vernors, Better Made Potato Chip Company, and much more. Detroiters boast that Stevie Wonder, Aretha Franklin, Tommy Hearn, Dr. Ben Carson, Mother Rosa Parks, a massive amount of dynamite gospel artists, and a multitude of other greats are some the roots of Detroit.

MEET DETROIT’S PRIDE: MR. W. BERNARD WHITE

As black as the reputation that this city has, we must see it as a black velvet lining for diamonds to sprinkle and shine! It is an honor for the Lamp Newsletter to feature Mr. W. Bernard White, the founder and president of White Construction Company.

Mr. White definitely looks at Detroit as a place to add numerous diamonds to shine brilliantly on this black velvet canvas. He has faithfully accomplished this with his huge and extremely successful productive construction company. Vacant lots and desolated land that would be more places to pile old tires and mountains of garbage within Detroit have been transformed into beautifully designed and constructed buildings. Mr. White and his company, White Construction, has made a major imprint on this city for nearly thirty years. His company has been headquartered in Detroit since 1989.

History

White Construction was not the first to make renovation an innovation. But the company has undoubtedly capitalized on that niche, making it a multi-million dollar construction services firm, headquartered in Detroit.

White Construction was founded on July 31, 1989 in Detroit, Michigan, when founder and president, W. Bernard White, P.E. departed from the security of steady employment and forayed into entrepreneurship.

Encouraged daily about the importance of getting an education by his grandmother (Rosa Smith), Bernard White grew up on the west side of Detroit with his mom, two sisters and brother (while staying in the upper flat with his grandmother). After graduating from Chadsey High School, he began pursuing his degree in Construction Engineering, while working full time during the day as a Draftsman at the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department.

Initially failing his trigonometry class, he refused to quit, continued to pay his own tuition and persisted. By the third year, he began earning A's. He graduated in 1980, Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Construction Engineering from Lawrence Technological University. He passed the State of Michigan Professional Engineer's licensing examination in 1981 and was registered as a Licensed Professional Engineer in the State of Michigan.

Bernard joined Turner Construction where over eight years he learned the nuts and bolts of providing construction management services. White then moved to Walbridge Aldinger assigned as a project manager on a $110 million pumping station at the Detroit Wastewater Treatment Plant. Even with his success and great experiences at Turner and Walbridge, Bernard eschewed the idea of being the perpetual employee and set his sights on becoming an employer. In 1989, 34 year old Bernard White took his life savings and transformed his reverie into a reality...White Construction.

The recession of the time was a blessing in disguise for White Construction, because many cash-strapped businesses would not invest in new construction and were opting to renovate and redevelop existing structures. As a small company, renovation was something that could be done quite easily and quite readily, giving White Construction an opportunity to carve their own position into the industry.

White's adventure began with an initial sales goal of $10 million in 5 years - a number he admits to pulling out of the air as it sounded like a good projection. He amazed himself when it actually happened five years later.

Since then, the start up company has grown to a full service Construction Management Firm. White Construction has had its hand on numerous and major Detroit landmarks.

Now that White Construction has passed through the "adolescent" to the "adult" stage, White Construction's forward vision is to go from a "Good" to a "Great" Company.

A LIFE BUILT ON A TRUE FOUNDATION: JESUS!

Mr. White has great integrity and a stellar record of accomplish in his industrious construction business. He gives credit to the godly upbringing that he was given by his loving mother, Mrs. Muriel White, and his nurturing grandmother, Mother Rosa Smith. Both of these precious ladies in his life are now deceased, but they were pillars of teaching Christian principles and Biblical truths. They believed and trusted God in their daily walk of life. His mother, Mrs. White, was forthright and a woman of great faith. God used her mighty to sing gospel music that moved the hand of God in your life.

His grandmother, Mother Rosa Smith, stood for holy living and developed character in the lives of those that she touched in many ways. Mother Smith was an educator. She was a wise woman who applied her knowledge and wisdom to teach others to become a person of merit. She also led the women at our church, Greater Miller Memorial Church of God in Christ, as a caring and concerned Church Mother.

Mother Smith and Songstress Muriel White helped to shape the lives of their children, grandchildren, great-grand children, and their generation. They had a standard for living that impressed everyone that they touched in their family, their many friends, and the church. Mr. W. Bernard White is a mighty man because he followed the guidance and training of his mother and grandmother. Today, he stills cherishes and honors what he was given from them as a child.

In closing, I can testify to Mr. White’s legacy. I was blessed to know his mother and grandmother. They also helped to shape my life, too. Years ago, Mr. White was one of my Sunday school students in my Young Adult class. In my class, he was a Bible scholar and dedicated to studying the word of God.

He has a strong foundation. God has blessed him to accomplish great things. Mr. White is a marvelous example of what God will do in your life when you yield your life and ways to Him. It also reveals the impact a “Mama” can have on her son, such as Timothy’s mother, Eunice, and grandmother Lois. (2 Timothy 1:5)

THE NEW DAY!

JOY COMES in the MORNING!

I'm up late. But, before I turn in, I was thinking of all of us who go to bed each night so tired...so drained...often asking God, "Remember me?" Sometimes we often feel like whiners, but we are smart whiners. We know who to whine to! We know who is listening, who really cares, and most of all, we know God knows! GOD WAS THERE, RIGHT WITH US!

Mrs. Michele Gardner Barnes

So, before we go to sleep, I want to say this for you and for me, "Thank you, Lord. Thank you, Lord, for watching over us!" I know I'm waking up with the "joy" of having one more day. One more day to wake up alive! We can face the challenges that we must face knowing, yes knowing, I can do all...not some...ALL THINGS through Christ that strengthens me! We are on the battlefields and we must fight to live!

Nobody told me that the road would be easy. God has brought us too far to leave us! I'm smiling and I hope you are, too!

Love you! Michele

MR. HERBERT METOYER and his wife, MRS. GERRI METOYER

Herb Metoyer is a Louisiana Creole gentleman who graduated from Southern University, Baton Rouge, LA at the early age of nineteen (19). He is a retired military officer and helicopter pilot, and a recent retiree from General Motors where he served as a Test Engineer in GM's Testing Laboratories.

Herb is an accomplished composer who experiments with all music genres. He is also one of the few (maybe the only) African-American folk song writers to emerge during the 1960's era. And although he has composed a number of jazz songs, his favorite medium today is still "Folk." You might say that he is a musically enhanced "Storyteller" & "Poet." Much of his music concerns civil rights, people & children he has encountered during his lifetime, and other topical subjects such as war, historical events and personal observations.

He performs utilizing both the guitar and synthesizer, sometimes playing a harmonica which hangs around his neck, and a bass drum with his foot.

His vinyl album recorded in 1965 on MGM's VerveFolkways Label entitled "Something New," has become a classic folk album that has been selling on ebay as a collector's item. Even today, he still receives fan mail relative to this album.

When released, Herb's first album received a "Four Star" rating by Billboard magazine. He was a Helicopter pilot in the military at the time. But once he was promoted to grade of Major, the military cut his budding music career short, claiming that his activities as a singer/songwriter were unbecoming of a field grade officer. So..., Herb gave up performing in favor his military career.

One of Herb's most prized accomplishments, however, is the fact that one of his songs "Mother, Fools are A Long Line Coming" is on the "moon" in the Time Capsule. It was recorded by Fred Neil on his "Sessions" album by Capitol. This was the album selected by the astronauts to be encased in the time capsule that was placed on the moon.

During his youth, Herb performed on the same shows along side such great artists as Joni Mitchell, Fred Neil, Mike Taylor, Josh White (Senior & Junior), Odetta, Vince Martin, Judy Collins, Phil Ochs, Mayon Weeks, Danny Potter, and Steve Biggs.

During his latter years, Herb concentrated on writing and book publishing. In 1984, he became a founding member of the "Detroit Black Writer's Guild," a non-profit organization devoted to improving literacy and training potential authors. With this organization, he held the posts of Senior Editor, Executive Editor, Chairman of the Board, and Executive Director.

To his credit, he completed two novels and published over twenty books for other authors.

In his seventies, Herb focused on his music. His last CD, "Here I Am Again" was released in 2004. He also released a new CD titled "This Is The Time."

Mr. Metroyer died on July 30, 2015. In addition to his wife, Gerri of 59 years, Mr. Metroyer is survived by sons Jeff, Angelo, Hermes and Michael; daughters Yolanda Metroyer and Valerie Schroder; four sisters; a brother; 11 grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

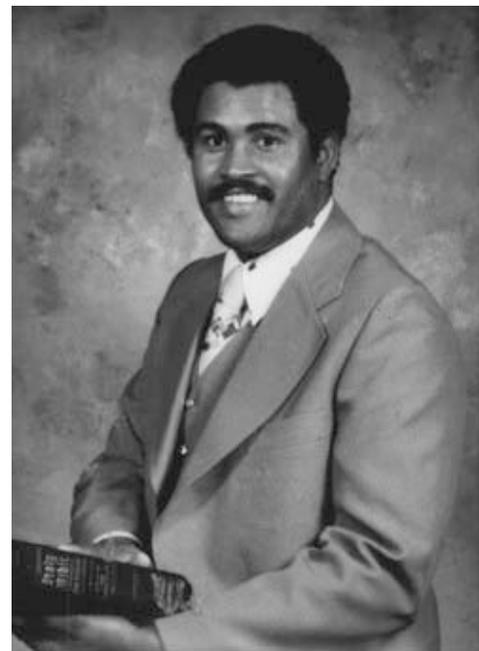

Prayers are extended to the precious family of.....

URGENT PRAYER REQUEST...URGENT PRAYER REQUEST....URGENT!

I received this very urgent prayer request from a dear friend concerning someone she knows. No name is given and it is not necessary because God knows all about this dear person. Please join in prayer for this dear one.

I have been losing my eyesight. After seeing various doctors and an MRI, they have concluded that I have a brain tumor & will need to have surgery. I must admit that the thought of having my head cut open and my brain operated on is scaring me even though I am a Christian. If I don't have the surgery, I will most likely lose any vision I have left which is not much. When the doctor told me, I was stunned. It was the last thing I expected to hear. I am still trying to come to terms with it. I will be going to a hospital on Tuesday to meet with a neurosurgeon. He is supposed to be a cutting edge doctor. Can you please pray for me to be brave and for the doctor to do a good job? Thank you.

SEPTEMBER BIRTHDAYS

A Special Tribute Memorial Birthday – September 9

Honoring the Memory of My Greatly Beloved Mother...

EVANGELIST WILLIE LEE MCCANN PALM of Detroit, MI

Her memory is cherished and always in my heart...

My mama was married to my dad, Elder Minor Palm, for over 54 years. They were always a true ministry team. Dad and mama stood together in numerous ministries, because they had a huge heart for others.

They had 3 children (Wanda (me), Rodger, and Regina). They are the precious grandparents of Jason (Stacey), Julian (Kai), and Jolayna Palm. Mama did not live to see and love her great-grandchildren: Ja'Den, Justin, and Naomi Palm. But if she did, she would adore them just like she adored us.

Mama was a truly loving, caring, and godly woman. She sincerely loved her family. We all meant everything to her. She was a devoted homemaker always using her time to serve and bless her family in so many needed ways.

She willingly made sacrifices to see us press on in life to accomplish what was important. Mama invested her time in each one of us to see us achieve on a higher level. She always beamed with pride when we shined. But, when we didn't reach our goal or accomplish what we desired, Mama encouraged us to not to give up. Now, this was time for Dad and Mama to pray. They prayed us through until God stepped in and helped to turn it around.

My mama respected and truly sincerely loved her mother, Mrs. Blanche McCann. There wasn't anything that she wouldn't do for her at anytime. She was greatly concerned about her siblings and the rest of the entire family that way, too.

She had a huge heart for others. She worked tirelessly as a leader in the following departments at Greater Miller Memorial Church of God of Christ: Sunday School, Foreign and Home Missions, the Youth, the Hospitality Department, the Missionaries, Elder and Ministers' Wives, Purity Class, Prayer and Bible Band and the Wayne County Jail Ministries.

She was a fired-up prayer warrior who was always ready to pray! Evangelist Palm, my mama, highly esteemed her pastors: Elder Whitlock, Bishop U. E. Miller and Bishop Earl J. Wright, Sr. She sincerely loved their wives and acclaimed all of their children as her own, too.

Mama was an anointed Public Relations Leader. She was an influential and prominent community leader that touched every segment of business, education, politics, and government. She was renown throughout the state as a powerful leader. Community work is what Mama treasured. Her hands gave and gave to bless others on the streets, church, government, and wherever needed.

My mama was quiet in manner, full of grace, dignified at all times, gentle and loving, but she was a force to be reckoned with! Her deep and sincere love for the Lord Jesus Christ made her empowered in faith. She was rooted in the Word of God and lived her life by letting her light shine so that God received all the glory and praise!

I was so blessed to have a godly home. Daddy, Elder Minor Palm, Jr., was a great "Sanctified Gospel Preacher" and a sweet loving father. Daddy and Mama trained us up as the Bible commands. I am thankful.

In 1955, at the age of five years old, I gave my life to Jesus. I went to Mama with my decision. She was busy ironing clothes but stopped immediately when she saw me running to her in tears. I cried out, "Mama! I want to be saved!" Mama bent down and picked me up in her arms...kissed me and my tears...then she knelt down and told me to do the same. She prayed me into salvation. My soul was blessed by her powerful prayers! I am saved today because my mama led me to the Lord. Thank you, Jesus for saving my soul!

At the age of eight years old, I received the infilling of the Holy Ghost or Holy Spirit in 1958. I was at home and the Spirit of God came upon me...I began to speak in another tongue...Mama heard me. She ran to me. We prayed together. Then, she called my grandfather Elder Minor Palm, Sr. Mama told him and he prayed with me over the phone as Mama rejoiced, clapped, laughed, and cried.

Mama...you lived your life for the glory of God. You birthed me into this world as my precious mother...and you lead me to my eternal home. I am living to see Jesus...and see Daddy...and you, dearest Mama.

Thank You Thank You Thanks SO MUCH Merci

A MILLION THANKS!

Special thanks and sincere appreciation are extended to several wonderful and caring people who are generously supporting, promoting and contributing to my ministries. It is impossible to accomplish anything completely on your own. However, if you seek and trust God for His help and guidance, He will send others to work alongside of you and lead you on your journey.

I am so thankful and blessed by the following precious people who have recently done great things for me...

Dearest Beverly,

You have tremendously blessed me by promoting my book, DON'T MESS WITH ME! Who Do You Think You Are? I am so thankful that you posted my book on the Tribe Book Shelf in June 2015. I am amazed by the outpouring of interest in my book in the United States and across the world! I never imagined that my book would receive over 530 hits and going online. To God be the glory!

Thanks for also featuring me in the 2014 radio interview on the "Woman at the Well" broadcast. Your profound and razor sharp interview dug deep into my book. You allowed me to promote the purpose and mission of my book to your wide listening audience. This is every writers dream. You gave me a major opportunity to advance and speak to the masses through your enormous platform.

God brought us together amidst your busy schedule and great demands in your businesses. I shall never forget how God did this. Our God is amazing!

Author Ramelle T. Lee has heartfelt gratitude to you for posting her book, Step into His Greatness, on the Tribe Book Shelf, this summer, too. Her book is also extremely popular in this online posting. She is excited about what God is doing.

2 Corinthians 9:10-12

IT'S JUST A TEST

Meditation Scripture:
Psalm 118:6 (KJV)

"The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what man can do unto me?"

Keep your head up high and know that I am with you always. You don't have to be weary and sad of heart because you think you are alone. Know that I am right here walking beside you. You have nothing to fear.

Let not your heart be troubled. I will stand with you and keep you from falling into a place of destruction. You have everything you need to be strong. I have given you courage to walk by faith and never look back. I have given you My peace to calm your spirit and given you grace to run this race.

You are on the right course. Just stand still and let Me lead you where you should go. You will not lose your way, because I am guiding you every step of the way. You will not walk in the pathway of darkness, because I will show you the light of mercy. You will be steadfast and unmovable, because I will keep you in a place where you will receive the comfort you need to walk through the valley of your situation.

Do not fear what man can do to you. You have the stamina to survive, because I have given you the precious Holy Spirit to allow you to mount up with wings and soar like an eagle. I have given you the ability to make the right choices and follow the right course for your life. You will survive all the pitfalls that come to challenge your spirit and your faith. I have given you supernatural strength to meet every obstacle that is placed in your path.

When adversity comes to test your faith...look to the Lord to deliver you out of your distress. Allow Me to fight your battles and give you the strength to walk in victory. Fear not. You have the ability to withstand every test that you are given in life. Why?

Because I will be there to encourage your heart to walk in love. Be strong in My everlasting power and let Me see you through any test that comes to conquer your spirit.

When you know Me and know what I can do for you, no weapon formed against you will prosper. This is only a test. The battle is not yours. It's the Lord's. Stand still and firm in your faith. Know that I can work wonders in your life. Know that I will give you the strategy to survive. Just walk in the anointing that I have given you and you will survive every test that comes to challenge your mind, body and spirit. You will proclaim with a smile and a shout...when the devil is defeated. "It's just a test and God has given me the victory!"

LORD BLESS THE CHILDREN

by Wanda J. Burnside

PSALM 138:7 KJV

Though I walk in the midst
of trouble,
thou wilt
revive me;
thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine
enemies,
and thy right hand shall save me.

Dear Lord,

Please watch over our boys and girls,
In this troubled and wicked world.
Protect and keep them safe everyday,
For this is what we ask and pray.

Lord protect and help the children!

Be with them everywhere they go,
To Satan help them to say "No!"
Cover our children in Jesus' blood,
Surround them with your Spirit and love.

Lord save the children!

We stand on your promises and boldly proclaim:
Blessings over them in Jesus' name.
We praise and thank you for these things,
All glory to Jesus, our Saviour and King.

Lord bless the children!

Amen
